

Spanish speaking agency opens in Harrison

Abbott Insurance Agency opened its third location on May 14. Under the name Abbott/Milano Insurance Agency, it is located at 9 Frank E Rodgers Blvd S., in Harrison. As an independent insurance agency, Abbott/Milano offers bilingual insurance agents who can provide coverage, work to reduce losses and control insurance costs. They are customer-focused and have built a reliable reputation within the Northern New Jersey area.

In March, William J. Abbott came to Harrison for business, and found the town to be "on the rise." He also found it to be underserved by insurance agents from its own community. Identifying an opportunity for growth, William used the experience gained from his Spanish-speaking Bloomfield office to tailor the services in Harrison. He states, "I am excited about this town being a crossroads among the PATH, Route 280, Kearny, Ironbound and Jersey City. It is a diverse neighborhood with a lot of possibilities."

Abbott Insurance Agency represents over 20 different insurance companies. They provide coverage for home, auto, business, life and other types of insurance coverage. They also understand that their clients' needs are their business, and have made it their primary goal to build a relationship, or partnership between the insured, the insurance company and their office.

Established in 1959 by William S. Abbott, this local business has grown into a full service insurance agency. Today it is run by his son, William J. Abbott, who continues to provide professional, yet personal service. He states, "My passion is doing my best to service my insurance clients."

Abbott Insurance Agency has two other locations in Lyndhurst and Bloomfield. Abbot purchased the Milano Insurance Agency in August, 2005 and renamed it Abbott/Milano Insurance Agency.

The offices provide English, Spanish and Filipino speaking insurance agents to handle all aspects of the insurance business.
